DECKLAR TO APPLY FOR MANAGEMENT CEASE TRADE ORDER

Calgary, Alberta -- Decklar Resources Inc. (TSX-V: DKL) (OTC: DKLRF) (FSE: A1U1) (the “Company” or “Decklar”) announces that it intends to apply to the Alberta Securities Commission, (the “ASC”), under National Policy 12-203 - Management Cease Trade Orders (“NP12-203”) requesting that a temporary management cease trade order (“MCTO”) be granted in respect of the late filing of the consolidated audited financial statements, management’s discussion & analysis and related officer certifications and its annual filings under National Instrument 51-101 Standards for Oil and Gas Activities for the year ended December 31, 2023 (together, the “Annual Filings”). The Annual Filings are required to be filed on or before April 29, 2024. There is no guarantee that an MCTO will be granted.

The Company, its auditor and its independent reserves engineer require more time to complete the preparation, reviews and audit of the Annual Filings. The delay has been caused due to the Company’s constrained cash flow as a result of operational difficulties in selling its crude oil in Nigeria and the inability to satisfy its accounts payable.

The Company will work closely with its auditor and independent reserve engineer to complete the Annual Filings and expects to file the Annual Filings on or about June 20, 2024.

If an MCTO is granted, the Company's directors and senior officers and other insiders will not be able to trade the Company's securities while the MCTO is in effect. The Company confirms that it will comply with the provisions of the alternative information guidelines as set out in NP 12-203 for as long as the default remains in effect, including the issuance of bi-weekly default status reports by way of news release.

The Company confirms, as of the date hereof, that: (i) it is not subject to any insolvency proceeding; and (ii) except as set forth below, there is no other material information concerning the affairs of the Company that has not been generally disclosed.

Decklar also announces the immediate resignation of its Chief Financial Officer, David Halpin. David will continue to support and assist Decklar as a consultant in the preparation of the Annual Filings. The Company would like to thank Mr. Halpin for his contribution and wish him well in all his future endeavours. The Company intends to seek a replacement Chief Financial Officer on an interim basis while it searches for a new full-time permanent Chief Financial Officer.

Cautionary Language

Certain statements made and information contained herein constitute "forward-looking information" (within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation), including, but not limited to, statements regarding: disclosure regarding possible events, that are based on assumptions about future economic conditions and courses of action, obtaining necessary approvals from regulatory authorities, availability of services and personnel necessary to complete required tasks in order to fulfill regulatory requirements in a timely manner, permits and agreements to allow access and production into pipelines and deliveries of crude oil by truck, the timing for payment of crude oil sales, the final execution of necessary agreements to sell additional crude oil, the maintaining of stable crude oil production, the ability to transport crude oil by pipeline or truck, the continued access to functioning pipelines and the availability of export vessels. All statements in this news release, other than statements of historical facts, are forward-looking statements. Such statements and information (together, "forward looking statements") relate to future events or the Company's future performance, business prospects or opportunities. There is no certainty that definitive agreements in respect of the Transaction will be entered into, or that any conditions precedent contained therein will be satisfied on terms satisfactory to the parties or at all.

All statements other than statements of historical fact may be forward-looking statements. Any statements that express or involve discussions with respect to predictions, expectations, beliefs, plans, projections, objectives, assumptions or future events or performance (often, but not always, using words or phrases such as "seek", "anticipate", "plan", "continue", "estimate", "expect", "may", "will", "project", "predict", "potential", "targeting", "intend", "could", "might", "should", "believe" and similar expressions) are not statements of historical fact and may be "forward-looking statements". Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results or events to differ materially from those anticipated in such forward-looking statements. The Company believes that the expectations reflected in those forward-looking statements are reasonable, but no assurance can be given that these expectations will prove to be correct and such forward-looking statements should not be unduly relied upon. The Company does not intend, and does not assume any obligation, to update these forward-looking statements, except as required by applicable laws. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties relating to, among other things, changes in oil prices, results of exploration and development activities, uninsured risks, regulatory changes, defects in title, availability of materials and equipment, timeliness of government or other regulatory approvals, actual performance of facilities, availability of financing on reasonable terms, availability of third party service providers, equipment and processes relative to specifications and expectations and unanticipated environmental impacts on operations. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements.

The Company provides no assurance that forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. The Company does not assume the obligation to revise or update these forward-looking statements after the date of this document or to revise them to reflect the occurrence of future unanticipated events, except as may be required under applicable securities laws.
